A photograph of the interior of the Lower East Side Synagogue. The image shows a richly decorated sanctuary with a large, ornate wooden ark (Aron Kodesh) in the center, covered in red velvet with gold fringe and featuring a Star of David. The ark is flanked by large, colorful stained-glass windows with intricate geometric and floral designs. The floor is covered in red carpeting, and the walls are adorned with murals and decorative elements. A balcony with a red curtain is visible on the right side. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and religious significance.
